

Japan is ready to host WorldSkills Competition 2028 * Aichi, Japan

Linking skills for a sustainable future

 Japan is proposing to host the WSC2028 - The final decision will be made in September 2024*

worldskills
Japan

JAVADA
JAPAN VOCATIONAL ABILITY DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION

Japan. Skills

Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare

EXPERIENCE OF HOSTING WSCS

- 1970 Tokyo, Japan
- 1985 Osaka, Japan
- 2007 Shizuoka, Japan

Experience of hosting WSCS - Japan

Convenient access to Japan from many cities in the world

Aichi's geographic position in Japan

Why in Japan?

- Japan, which is developed through skills and technology, is the country that embodies the mission of WSI
- “Aichi Sky Expo” can be accessed from cities around the world
- Possess experience hosting large-scale global events, including three of WorldSkills Competitions
- One of the largest tourists' destinations in the world with many attractive cities

Vision of Japan

- Provide a comfortable environment for all the competitors, with high operational capabilities and the best hospitality
- Ready to work with the WSI to develop future-focused skills around the world and contribute to the realization of the WorldSkills Vision
- Enhance the global skills network and the international cooperation activities through the WSC

Optoelectronic Technology
46th WorldSkills Competition Kyoto

Skill Analyzing Studio (SAS)
(Polytechnic University)

Toyota Commemorative Museum of Industry and Technology

Competition Venue - Aichi Sky Expo -

National Skills Competition

Aichi Sky Expo

- Inaugurated in August 2019
- One of the largest exhibition facilities and the only exhibition hall with a customs free zone in Japan
- Directly connected to the Chubu Centrair International Airport and 5 minutes walk from the terminal building
- Hosting the National Skills Competition events several times (2019, 2020, 2023, 2024 and coming 2025)

Accommodation for the Competitors Located in the Vicinity of the Competition Venue

Convened under “Competitors First”
policy
at compact zone

Support for Participating Countries and Regions

- Courteous supports for smooth entry to Japan and domestic transportations
- Initiatives to facilitate competitions and to excite the audiences will be planned under coalition with business organizations and competition stakeholders
- Excursions to enjoy Japan and Aichi, by visiting historical castles, industrial tourist facilities, and other typical Japanese sightseeing spots, will be offered

Attractive Food Culture

- Japanese foods, Japanese cuisine is world-renowned , are savored
- Visitors are welcomed through the hospitality adapted to the various religious and cultural background

Examples of dishes for Muslim travelers